Were Two Vagrants by Mayor Shields at Saturday Morning's Session of Police Court—Other Prisoners Disposed Of.

Mayor Shields gave his attention to eight prisoners in police court at the regular session Saturday morning.
Charles K. Knobbs was arrested by Officer Simms upon suspicion of being a mendicant and a vagrant. The mayor discharged him from custody upon the condition that he leave the city immediately. Criss Harvey was pulled for wandering aimlessly about the city with no fixed intent or purpose. The mayor ordered him to leave the city at once.
James Brown was nabbed up by Officer Henry Lewis, but the policeman had some little trouble in doing the nabbing.
Brown did not like the business and exhibited his displeasure in a forceful way.
The mayor sent him to jail for ten days on the charge of being drunk, acting disorderly and resisting an officer. Two plain drunks paid three dollars and costs and one was sent to jail for three days in default of a three dollar fine.
Two young colored men had been arrested for fighting. One was fined five dollars and costs which he paid, and the other was discharged.
